CALL FOR PAPERS

The School of Music and the Graduate Studies Program announce the VI International Symposium of Musicology of the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro in conjunction with the Ibero-American Institute-Berlin (IAI) and the University of Arts-Berlin (UdK), to be held in Rio de Janeiro from August 10 to 15, 2015. The event is the result of the cooperation agreement between the institutions of Brazil and Germany, and its realization in Rio de Janeiro has the support of the Brazilian Academy of Music.

The VI SIM_UFRJ "Cultural Exchanges: Music Between Latin America and Europe" proposes to approach this theme in broad scope of diverse cultural traditions, contexts and historical times, and of special interest to the International Colloquium IAI / UdK is to increase knowledge of the "Trajectories of art music between Latin America and Europe, 1945-1970." This Symposium provides an opportunity for scholars to engage in the discussion of the following issues:

- cultural dialogues, circulation, transfer and appropriation of ideas, repertoires, aesthetics, styles, techniques, musical practices and ideologies
- music and artistic or cultural ruptures
- representation and cultural translation
- migration, exile, and travels
- identity, otherness, nationalism, and exoticism
- culture, society and politics
- interdisciplinary studies: visual arts, theatre, literature, philosophy, history, sociology, and cultural anthropology
- heritage and collections
- institutional policies of scientific, artistic and cultural exchange between Latin America and Europe
- discursive strategies in the relationship between art and science
- knowledge and power

The Symposium will gather prominent specialists from Latin America, Europe, and the USA, thus furthering the dialogue among communities of scholars from various countries. Selected papers will be published in the Proceedings, in printed and electronic formats, and will be available at no cost on the site of the School of Music of the UFRJ. It will be distributed to libraries, research and cultural institutions in Brazil and abroad, and graduate study programs.
